

Final Timetable

Friday 10 April: Introduction to Archives Workshop

09.00	Arrival: meet at the main entrance to King's College on King's Parade
09.15	Talk from an archival researcher: Karen Arrandale will discuss her research for a biography of Edward Dent
09.45	Introduction to Archives: Peter Monteith, Archivist
10.25	King's College Archives Centre: Peter Monteith, Archivist
10.45	Break
11.00	Introduction to Rupert Brooke: Eleanor Thompson, Schools Liaison Officer
11.30	Kings' College Archives: a problematic collection: Peter Monteith, Archivist
11.45	Exhibition of Rupert Brooke Papers in the King's College Archive Centre
12.30	Lunch
13.15	Interpretation Activity 1: Grantchester
14.00	Interpretation Activity 2: The Soldier
14.45	Break / sign-up for optional reading room session on Saturday afternoon
15.00	Interpretation Activity 3: The Myth
15.45	Conclusions
16.30	Departure / optional catalogue session for those using the reading room

Saturday 11 April: optional reading room session

You can still sign up for a session in the King's College Archive Centre reading room on Saturday morning. You will have the chance to request and view up to three files each from selected archival collections (the papers of Rupert Brooke, Edward Dent, John Maynard Keynes, E. M. Forster, or Alan Turing).

09.15	Reading Room Session
10.30	Departure

If you would like to use the reading room, but can't do so on this occasion you are welcome to return another time during the King's Archive Centre's usual opening hours.

Please see their website... <http://www.kings.cam.ac.uk/archive-centre/visiting.html>

... and email archivist@kings.cam.ac.uk to make an appointment